A handwritten note

You know that it's bad
When it's a handwritten note
When it comes in the mail
That's a two thumb's down vote
When she signs it with love
You know it's the end
A lifetime is over
Now she calls you a friend

You know that it's bad
When the note starts with dear
Not honey or baby
Too formal I fear
When she circles the teardrop
To convince you she's hurting
Don't ponder tomorrow
Of course she's out flirting

That's just how it goes
Don't be ashamed
Where once was desire
With passion enflamed
It's never time wasted
When intentions devote
But Hateful it ends
With a handwritten note

Paper and pen
Cursed to men
Her stationary
You won't be merry
Hallmark is worse
Sympathies curse
Handed your coat
in a handwritten note
