A new way to say hello

This is not goodbye
please hear me say, tis true for your presence i have yearned
From your presence i have learned
Each day, Every day under skies steely gray blue
I know that This is not goodbye
Sometimes i waken, dark of night
And moments searching for some light
And yes i am more than sad
And lonely so
But here is what i've come to know
That this is not goodbye
We just need to find
A new way to say hello

Dear love
The journey's just begun
I see you shining like the sun
And in that dappled autumn morn
My purpose clear and can you hear
Me when I say
Can you see my promise kept
And even when in despair have wept
That the journey is not close to done
My focus true
My passion you
And this is not goodbye i know
Just a new way to say hello

Understand that when i cry
It's not because i say goodbye
I wish you had not had to go
But everyday i say hello
To you, my dear, to you, my love Everyday i say hello anew
