A turn for the worse

I took a turn for the worse
I had to judge it in that way
I took a turn for the worse
Even though it was time to get away

I took a turn for the worse
I think everyone sees me as bad
I took a turn for the worse
I left running, am i mad?

I took a turn for the worse
I've internalized another tale
I took a turn for the worse
Another life, another fail

I took a turn for the worse
I decided that i had to stay
It took a turn for the worse
I regret it each and every day

What's worse
What they they think or what you drink
What's worse
A life of fear or another beer

Who knows
Who knows
