All by myself my friend

I too am all by myself my friend
Alone in the gloaming like you awaiting the end
Your journey closing in a finite amount of time
My travels still meandering unwind

Are you feeling headwinds or does love fill your sails
Do people come to visit, do you share with them such tales
I search for lovers, to hold me in the night
But I too am alone my friend, seldom bathed in that lovelight

Are you afraid my friend, do you fear your death
Do you wonder what tis like to take that final breath
I don't believe that god will to heaven help me wend
And i too am alone, so very alone my friend

Can you hear me my friend, your eyes are closing fast
Are you dreaming of a life, the joys of youthful past
I sit and dream my dear, of those forgotten times
Engaging all my senses, informing all my rhymes

But when the sun finally sets, and you have gone away
I'll awaken to the sounds and smells of one more day
And hoping i can keep afloat, not into hell descend
I'll reach out to a brother, like you my dearest friend

With love, mr buhl
With love, mr buhl
Godspeed mr buhl
