All clear ahead

All clear ahead
For as far as the eye can see
What you may have been
And what you want to be
Can you choose the path
Imprisoned or perhaps free
All clear ahead
For as far as the eye can see

All clear ahead
At least that's what i desire
But around any bend
There lurks the risk of fire
Life is lived on the edge
Of the walker's highest wire
All clear ahead
At least thats what i desire

All clear ahead
That's the ultimate illusion
For even in the visible
There exists so much confusion
To say that life is a straight line
Is the quintessential delusion
All clear ahead
All clear ahead
Perhaps when we are long since dead
But not in life
All clear ahead
Never so simple
