An ending for my book

What will be
The ending for my book
The final chapter
Epilog
Will i drift in life's ever present fog
Or will all things finally resolve
All tied up in a tidy knot
An resting quiet in my nook
One ending for my book

What will be
The ending for my tale
The last page
An index to
All the things i saw as true
All the stuff i did accrue
And how i love so very few
But many my affection have mistook
One ending for my book

What will be
The ending of this song
Was it over all along
A cover worn
And pages torn
And me reborn
And anew
A novel emerges from the blue
So let me take a look
At my new book
At my new book
