Anger feeds the flame

The fire's burning hot these days
And anger feeds the flame
If only we could go to sorrow
But therein lies our shame
And so instead we live in rage
Deny our righteous pain
Anger feeds the flame
If we're not careful we may go insane

Anger feeds the flame
The flame eats us alive
It robs of of our souls
Our grace it does deprive
Anger feeds the flame
And yet it's held on high
When truth is that salvation
Exists when we can cry

Do you like your rage
Do you like living in that cage
You know anger feeds that rage
do you like living in that cage

Rage on my friend
Rage on til the end
Rage on
