As I dug deeper

The deeper I dug, the more i found i didn't want to see
But someone smart told me, you gotta dig deep if you wanna be free
I'm not so sure i buy it, the deeper i dug and the more i vetted
I uncovered a life, replete with deeds that i regretted

The deeper i dug, i confronted guilt and shame
You may be laughing, but truth be known this aint a game
Locked up tight, the deeper i pulled out loosened phlegm
A hidden world, kept secret from the eyes of men

As i dug deep
I bowed my head
So many wrongs
So many dead
As i dug deep
I found a soul
Filled with hatred
Tortured soul
A stiffened lip
Eyes shut tight
As i dug deep
I sank despite
The grip of life
Did relent
But i'm in too deep
To repent
