As to that who can say

As i looked into your eyes ocean blue and all afire
I recognized the tricky path
How Mesmerized we soon admire
Part of me that summer's eve
Wanted you with every breath
To love me til the end of time
To hold you at your moments death
To disappear inside your soul
To see in your adoring gaze
My desire reflected thus
As if as one and in a daze

But i know
This is not how it goes
This is not how it ends

And all awareness put aside
Soon this beauty is your bride
And finally eyes open wide
You get how deeply those eyes lied

Not on purpose
There was no deceit
We're just being human
Awareness can't compete

And this is love me
And as for its future, where will i be
As to that, who can say
