Bag of prunes

I just scored a bag of prunes
This will not be one of my better tunes
Tis better than scoring a bag of crap
Or lying on cacti to take a nap

The term to score has a positive ring
We score a ticket to watch patti smith sing
But it's the wrong word when it comes to a fart
Or a trip down to the local walmart

I guess some people have the view
That life is is scarcity, there's just too few
Of everything, including prunes
Or landfills full of trash mountain dunes

And so those people always feel
They score when they think they've got a deal
Even if the thing they've procured
Is a crumbling house that's uninsured

I scored a bag of prunes today
Oh yippee yippee, hip hip hooray
I'll eat them all without a doubt
And then i'll shit my damn brains out
