Be confident

Be confident i was told
Be brave and be bold
Never ever back down
Never ever wear a frown
Plaster a smile on your face
Sad people are a disgrace
And cowards are the worst of all
So make sure to stand tall
Even when you'd rather weep
Or close your eyes for the long sleep
Be brave and soldier on
Even if it is a con
And always say that you feel blessed
Never admit you feel stressed
Your life is like a dream
Even if you wanna scream
Ignore your PTSD
No one gets to live for free
So be brave and stand up
Don't whine about your empty cup
