Be seeing you

I'll be seeing you in my dreams
Or maybe in my nightmares
But who cares
Life is rarely what it seems
And so i'll be seeing you
In my dreams

I'll be holding you in my dreams
But only there
But who cares
Life never turns out as we planned
How we demand
And thus i'll be holding you
In my dreams

I can remember the passion that we had for each other
But i can't recall how it felt
How i'd melt
But who cares
That was so long ago
A reality i will never know
It seems
And so
I'll be seeing you
In my dreams

I still have the love letters we sent to one another
When we were 25, so alive
Precious memes
In my dreams
So i'll be seeing you
