Because love lasts forever

Because love lasts forever
We are never alone
Though the way may feel darkened
A path i am shown
It's cobbled so gentle
It's Maintained with care
A path troddened often
It's A path we all share

Because love lasts forever
Can we carry this load
When our hearts heavy grieving
There's Grace still bestowed
Though The dawn's foggy breaking
And In the mist lurks such pain
Loving e'er we push forward
Again and again

But sometimes I lose hope
Sometimes faith is gone
There are times when i feel i can't carry on

And You say love lasts forever
But You aren't taking my my hand
And I scream at my maker
Tell me why, I demand
Everyday feels like midnight
Can I still carry on
Tears still blurring always
The coming of dawn

And in that moment of greatest despair
When it all feels too much to bear
I am reminded that we held each other
Shared a lifetime of love for eacher
And in the darkness i will rediscover
That love lasts forever
