Before this is over

Before this is over
tears will be shed
Many will have suffered
Eyes bloodshot red
But this ain't a war
A battle or a fight
It's just another moment
When too many think they're right
Before this is over
We'll all be proven wrong
And decades in the future
Our ignorance will grace a song
The lyrics will tell all
About those of us who think
That we are always righteous
Even though we always blink
Before this is over
Friends will embrace hate
No one will accept responsibility
We'll blame it all on fate
And when our grandchildren remember
They'll shake their heads and cry
Before this is over
The truth will die
