Boom

Boom

That's how i feel when you walk into the room

Can't you see me dreamy eyed, can't you see me swoon

Boom

Boom

I look into your eyes and the world comes to a stop

Listen to me holler from the highest mountain top

Boom

Boom

Sometimes i think i'm the luckiest man on this earth so sweet

Each and every moment brings me joy to gently greet

Boom

Boom

This morning i awakened and in my arms you slept

I thanked the stars for meeting you and quietly i wept

Boom

Boom

Boom because my heart's exploding right out of my chest

Boom because loving you is what makes each day the best

So boom

boom

And, boom once more

boom
