

365-1000
breaking

There is no glue
To heal this wound
There's only time
To make it feel
A tad less real

Breaking, breaking

There is no fix
For a broken heart
There's only time
That lets us breath
One day's reprieve

There is no dawn
We I awaken less
There's only time
That sees my heart
From you apart

Breaking
breaking

There's only time
There's only time
It'll all be fine
Or maybe not
Maybe not
