Chasing the dark

What does chasing the darkness mean to you?
For me it means chance to tell a story that is true
The darkness is the tale of how humanity is wired
Self-destruction seems to be the standard that's desired

We all chase the dollars, we say we want to be secure
A summer home in the hamptons with all it's high allure
But pretty soon we justify lying to the fed
We laugh when our competitor is found alone and dead

We all chase eternal youth, we purchase healing creams
We lie in bed and masturbate to our twenty something dreams
Aging is the criminal, father time is satan's friend
Depression and the tanning booth kills us in the end

Chasing youth is
Chasing the dark
Chasing riches
We're off the mark
Chasing truth
That's so cute
The darkness calls
You can't refute
