Collectible

What's collectible and what is not
Is it what you feel vs what you bought
Is it what you own instead of what you thought
Are the feelings that i feel
Whether true or unreal
Able to be bottled up
Sold like art
Is what's in my heart
Collectible
Or not

What's for sale and what priceless be
A billion dollars or simply free
And is our democracy
Collectible
Like words on a dusty page
That speak of how we must engage
The vision of those revered and sage
Are those words
Collectible
Or not

I have no answers here
I once had a can of billy beer
I saved it for a rainy day
Perhaps it'll be worth millions some day
Or nothing of course

These are all silly questions
Silly me
