Dark rollercoaster

I'm on a dark rollercoaster
I'm marveling at all the sights
I guess i should be horrified
I'm taking in some many frights
Is it my imagination
Or is that what is true in store
The twists and turns exhilarate
Despite all the impending gore
I'm on a dark rollercoaster
My life's careening out of control
Years of trying to fit in
Have definitely taken quite a toll
How much more can i pretend
To be someone i'm simply not
In between the hardest rocks
I feel like im always caught
I'm on a dark rollercoaster
To my left's a grizzly end
I wonder what spectre
Will greet me around the next bend
Here comes the final free fall
Hold on tight lest i fall out
Don't forget it's just a ride
I'll survive i have no doubt

Or, little doubt
