Devout to the point

Devout to the point
But not to the man
Follow the teaching
But don't be a fan
Law is the rule
Not the enforcer
Devout to the idea
Not the coercer

Devout to the point
When it makes sense
Not to the fellow
Constructing the fence
He says he's a shaman
But he's really a fraud
Devout to the teaching
But not to the god

Devout to the point
An agent of learning
Not to the teacher
Though there is a yearning
For the teacher is
No different from you
Devout to the process
While leaving the pew

Devout to the point
But proselytize not
For change is the essence
Of all things we've got
So embrace the ideas
And devotion to growing
But reject the man
Who thinks he's all-knowing
