Drug of paradise

Drug of paradise, make you choice
Pump your fist and raise your voice
Which substance is the best of all
The one that lifts but you don't fall
The one whose benefits are many
Perhaps costing but a penny
And little other cost accrued
This drug never leaves you unglued
What drug is this you ask with hope
This elixir none referred as dope
A concoction simple and yet sublime
To carry it is not a crime
And yet more powerful than coke
But never leaving one dead broke
Almost free and perfect still
Unlike uncle Steven's swill
And no i'm not speaking of love
Or faith in some deity above
Nor of sugar do i speak
Though maple candy leaves me weak
Drug of paradise be mine
For your intoxicant i pine
And if you bless me every day
I promise i will stay away
From other drugs and noxious potions
Plants from which we brew our lotions
And i will stay to only you
Truer than the truest true
I'll pledge allegiance to your cause
I'll never for a moment pause
Oh drug of paradise reveal
So better every day i'll feel
