

639-1000
Eleven works

Eleven works
I'll meet you then
Under the rain bridge
That'll be when
It gives us an hour
Before midnight arrives
Then all is a-changing
Who knows what survives

Eleven works
The fog will be thick
An hour is all
Watch the time tick
A lifetime of love
In an hour we'll live
A lifetime of passion
All of me i will give

Eleven works
I know time is fleeting
And as dawn approaches
All hearts are retreating
The witches and warlocks
The bats on a wing
Only an hour
To hear my heart sing

Eleven, eleven
I'll see you then
Running and running
To beat other men
To hold you so briefly
To kiss your flushed cheek
And when midnight arrives
Ne'er will i speak

Of what happened with you
At eleven that night
