

540-1000
Even while i wait

Even while i wait
Under the graying sky
For the rains to abate
and try as i may try
To find the sun again
To have no need to cry
I cannot run away
From sorrow cannot fly
For even as i wait
The time is passing by
And tis never too late
No need to question why
For even as i wait
My heart cannot lie
Though i will never hate
I tell you this with a sigh
That even as i wait
I too will someday die
