Every and each today

Every and each today
And in every way
I want to love you
To love you
Every and each today
And in every way
I want to hold you
Feel love anew
It's funny how we think
The days will last forever
That we can throw a few away
And not each breath treasure
But i am here to say
The future is but a dream
Tomorrow is often not what it seems
And all we have
All we ever have
Is today
And while i pray for a million tomorrows for you and me
To be Together
I still say
Every and each today
And in every way
I want to love you
To love you
Every and each today
And in every way
I want to hold you
Feel love anew

And i love you
