Face in the clouds

I have never seen your
Face in the clouds
Only in my dreams
Only in my dreams

I have never felt
Your lips on my forehead
I'm alone so it seems
Alone so it seems

And i have never heard
Your voice in the early morn
Tender half awake
Tender half awake

And i have never seen
Your face in the clouds
On a summers days
While i'm begging you to stay

A face in the clouds is gone
The moment you look away
A face in the clouds disappears
Like each word i once heard you say
