Fatherly advice

Beware of the ones who offer fatherly advice
Sure they may be well spoken, sure they may be nice
But fatherly advice often comes with lots of rules
And fathers are sometimes the biggest fucking tools

What is it about fatherhood that makes us any wiser
I know a lot of fathers who have wives and they despise her
Now is that the advice to their children they will give Treat me like a king but feel free to give your mom the shiv

Fathers think they earned the right to pontificate
Just because you've had kid doesn't make you great
In fact a ton of fathers have no idea who they really are You'll find those daddy's drinking johnny red at the local bar

And what about the fathers who beat up on their sons
Make em tough they hide behind but we know they're the ones
Who face life with a ton of fear and need to feel control
They lie about their rationale for taking on this role

So listen to a dad's advice with a healthy dose of doubt
Truth is you can live your life and surely do without
The wisdom of a father who's no wiser than you
And never think because he's a dad that his words must be true

Do it
Because i said so
Because i said so
Said so
