

557-1000
From all the windows

From all the windows
In plain sight
No haze obscuring
No dark of night
No use denying
It's what i see
From all the windows
Staring back at me
From all the windows
Peering out
Hiding shadows
Sneak about
Casting spells
Incantations
From all the windows
Such gyrations
From all the windows
No escape
No contortions
Keep your shape
Try to shatter
Tears you apart
From all the windows
with all my heart
I see.....me
