Hard earned wisdom

Not sure if i qualify
Not sure if any wisdom i hold has been all that hard earned
Life had been difficult
Most of what i think the hard way i have learned
But sage i am not
I come to life with many a need and not a lot of humility
Perhaps that's my flaw
Among others that some would call a character disability

Hard earned wisdom
That's the toughest stuff of all
We usually find it
When we're recovering from a fall
Hard earned wisdom
Best judged by those all around
If we evaluate ourselves
It may be pride and hubris we have found

Are you wise
Are you kind
Do you live
In heart or mind
Are you wise
Can you breath deep
Are you wise
Can you weep?
