Hard of hearing

I am hard of hearing
Just selectively
Tell me what i want to hear
With which i do agree
And i am 20/20
In the auditory sphere
Frankly i am catlike
When to want to hear

But disagree or chastise
And i wrinkle up my nose
I cup my ear on the outside
And strike a deaf repose
I'll even through a thunderstorm
Pretend in peace to doze
If you say the things
I do not want to know

Some call this denial
I just call it smart
Why should i be forced to listen
When it hurts my heart
I know that this is one reason
We have grown apart
All'd be fine if you just
Kept quiet from the start

Please don't wound me with your sordid tale
About all of the ways in which in love i haved failed
At least i'm still hanging on while others clearly bailed
I remain, just hard of hearing
