How do i find it

Ask me
How do i find it
Is it hiding where no one can see
Is it right where it's supposed to be
Do i have to pay or is it free
Just ask me
How do i find it
Is it something i can touch
Can i hold it or is it too much
Will it make me stronger or is it just a crutch
So ask me
How do i find it
Is it buried secret underneath the ground
Somewhere so elusive as to never be found
And yet to it's force always to be bound
Ask me
Ask me 1000 times and 1000 times again
How do you find it?
Just stop looking
For open heart
It finds us all
