I can do without

On my favorite dating site they ask the following
When it comes to what you cannot do without, name the top 6 things
I find this question pointless, meaningless and a waste
But since i'm writing a song here i will still give you a taste

A taste of how i view the world, inane as it may sound
For there's nothing i can't do without, at least that's what i've found Granted i need air to breath and water to hydrate sure i need a meal or two my hunger for to sate

But here is where the question and its answers make me boil
And from the pretense of the answers i with a jerk recoil
For the responses are so vapid so as to make me puke
It's at these moments i am hope that humanity is nuked

"I can't live without my kids" oh yes you can you ass
In fact they want to move away your clinging is so crass
"I can't live without the sea" i call bullshit yet again
Unless you are a fisherman or catch lobsters in a pen

"I can't live without the sun" Well none of us can you turd
Making such a statement is just patently absurd
I'm tired of these people and all of the bs that they tout
I'm single and i'm happy and i can do goddamned without!

I can do without
I don't need a thing
Advil sure is nice
I don't need your bling
I can do without
Rice and beans is great
Those who say they need
Are people that i hate
