I didn't mean that

When i said if you continued on that path i might pass away
I didn't mean that
It's really that i suffer so, i feel my soul's decay
It's just where i'm at
When you wake up screaming my i feel my heart skip a beat
I wish you'd sleep
I know that it's not your fault that you're so afraid and confused
Someday i'll weep

I didn't mean that
I'm sorry i let it slip
Sometimes i think the darkest thoughts
Sometimes i lose my grip
I want you to understand
I know it's about me
I really didn't mean that
I hope you hear my plea

When i like sir walter said that you were centered all in self
I didn't mean that
I know that in many ways you are the model of mental health
It's just where i'm at
Even though you fly off the handle smashing dish and glass
You're not to blame
Your childhood was a such a wreck i must give you a pass
It's just a shame
