

147-1000
I don't care

If i say I don't care, i usually still do
I often defer, but you don't have a clue
Like most of us, you want to be left alone
When i make it an issue, i can hear you groan

So i pretend not to give a shit
I shrug and say no big deal, i do my little bit
To keep you in my corner, he's such an easy guy
Of course i do care and my easygoingness is a lie

But not to worry, this song won't change my tune
I'll still say i don't care and and you'll still find me a boon Agreeable to the end, you will think of me so highly That's the guy who is always helpful and so smiley

I don't care
My secret code
I care deeply
It's a heavy load
Mind full of thoughts that i refuse to share
Because you'll like me more
If i don't care
