I felt completely safe

I felt completely safe
But feelings can be misleading
Trust them at your peril
Delusion you are breeding
I felt completely safe
But boy was i wrong
I should never trust my feelings
I knew that all along

I felt completely empty
But feelings quickly passb
Not unlike some beans and rice
That bring on too much gas
I felt completely empty
But i filled my hollow core
With some chocolate and a fatty steak
That's something i adore

I felt completely numb
Repression is my creed
I do not like when tears come hot
I do not like to bleed
I felt completely numb
I'd rather that than sorrow
Numbness may be unhealthy
But i'm not scared of tomorrow

I felt completely useless
That's when i got divorced
A man needs to feel like he's
More important than a horse
I felt completely useless
Good riddance i'm alone
No more guilt and no more shame
No reason to atone

I felt
I feel
I run
I deal
I think
I know
I think
I'll go
