I hate dogs

I hate dogs
I have to come clean
I know you'll think
I must be mean
But really i',
I reasonable guy
I just hate dogs
Let me tell you why

They smell so bad
They make me wanna wretch
I really don't care
That they can go fetch
They think that i love them
Up on me they jump
And even worse
My legs they try to hump

They beg for attention
Ignore 'em and they bark
A lose lose situation
I'd rather have a shark
At least such a pet
Wouldn't clamor for my smooches
He might take off my arm
But it'd better than those pooches

I hate dogs
They're way too needy
They slobber and they beg
They're always saying feed me
They track mud and dirt
Into my house
And unlike the cat
They won't catch a mouse
