I have no answers

I have no answers

No wisdom

Nothing great to share

I have no questions

No insights

It's not that i don't care

I do

I do

But what is it i can give

What do you expect

I have no answers

Some people say

The answer is love

Others say

Just be present for today

These are words

Only words

So ok

Label me

Label you

The optimist

The joyful

The free

Not me

I have no answers

No questions

And yet

This is a full life

I suppose

I wouldn't change a thing

I guess

Or perhaps

I would

You see

You see?
