I have rights

I have rights
You have nothin
That's what he said to me
While he was smilin
For he knew something
That i did not
Self righteous child
Never was taught
That rights and laws
Are different things
And the rule of men
Often brings
Misconceptions
About rights and all
And in the eyes of men
I may not stand so tall
So when i claim
I have the right
I'd better be ready
For a fight
And the one whom
I may have to face
Will beat me down
It's no disgrace
I have rights
No you don't
And the rule of men
Will make sure i wont
