I have touched the sun

How you say
It cannot be
But i have touched the sun
And it has touched me
Not with hands
Clumsy so
Not with thoughts
They come and go
But with my face
With closed eyes
In those moments
All fear dies
Senses become
Merged as one
In that way
I have touched the sun
I have touched the sun
And it has touched me
Let me describe
A feeling free
A soul released
From any pain
Ne'er so joyous
In the rain
And dancing on
I'll have such fun
Truth my loves
I have touched the sun
