I haven't noticed it

You say you're growing old
The bread in the fridge is covered with mold
You say it's tough to simply sit
Well, i haven't noticed it
I haven't noticed it

You say the check is in the mail
That someday i will enjoy kale
You say you're full of whity
Well i haven't noticed it
I haven't noticed it

You say i must be mad
That life up here is really bad
That we're just not a great fit
Well i haven't noticed it
I haven't noticed it

Maybe i'm blind
Perhaps eyes closed
Or to denial
I'm predisposed
Or maybe i just don't Give a shit
Matters not
On i go
On i go
