I meant to say it

You looked me aghast as i uttered all those words
You couldn't believe i had the gaul to flip those verbal birds
And when you questioned whether i really meant to convey it
I said a big hell yes, i meant to say it

My mother couldn't believe that i could think such a thought
Was in my right mind or did i have brain rot
Well i can assure you mother that there's no other way to play it
You heard me clearly sister, i meant to say it

Sitting at the synagogue the reb asked the congregation
Was there anyone who thought ill of the israeli nation
The crowd sat in silence as my words seemed to betray it
Ya Israel isn't perfect folks, and ya i meant to say it

I meant to say it
Kidding i was not
You heard me loud and clear
Across the bow my shot
Ya i meant to say it
And i have no misgiving
I shoulda said it long ago
Now that's some honest living
