I stare when

I stare when i try not to
It is wrong i know i ought to
Just ignore those around me
But My brain sometimes confounds me

I stare when i'm not thinking
I bet i didn't when i was drinking
I look away when your eyes catch me
I'm not gross, please don't dispatch me

I stare because you're stunning
Worry not, no need for running
I'm just interested in looking
There's no evil in me cooking

I stare
I do
I try not to gawk
I try not to talk
But i stare
I do
