I thought perhaps

I thought perhaps
We could dance as one
Twisting and twirling
Under a hot summer sun
In my minds eye
We could have some fun
I thought
Perhaps, just perhaps

I thought perhaps
I could hold you dear
Your heart might not Know quite so much fear
And under that sun
Souls entwined could seer
I thought
Perhaps just perhaps

I thought perhaps
Love might arrive
Like the northern light
Though rare, survive
And pristine the colors
E'er would thrive
I thought
Perhaps just perhaps

I think
I hope
I dream
And perhaps i seem
Lost in the stratosphere
Streaking 'cross the universe
Writing for you one more verse
Just one more verse
perhaps
