I tried to warn me

I tried to warn me
But i listened not
My reputations
All i've got
It really means nothing
And it means a lot
An existential lie
And by me i'm caught

I tried to warn me
I ignored myself
At the expense of
My mental health
And now my days
Are lived on the shelf
With all the meds
And none of the wealth

I tried to warn me
To live each day
To be present
To not obey
The self made pressure
What you all say
And like gogo and didi
I frightened stayed

I tried to warn me
And on my death bed
Out of my heart
My regrets bled
It matters not
What i have said
I tried to warn me
But now i'm dead
