

450-1000
I was hoping

I was hoping you'd say yes
I was ready for your no
I was coping to the best
Of my knowledge that when you'd go
I'd be stoic and removed
I'd be strong feel like a man
Now i'm weeping in the dark
Fuck i'm doing the best i can

I was hoping you'd come back
Realize your errant ways
Remembering what we had
Only thinking of the days
When so in love we'd ride around
Getting high to Steely Dan
But you've met another guy
Fuck i'm doing the best i can

I was hoping you'd tell the world
That i was perfect, inside and out
That if they wanted love sublime
With me they wouldn't have a doubt
But instead you told them i was weak
Needy and away you ran
I can't help i'm built this way
Fuck i'm doing the best i can
