I will

I will

Try my hardest

To feel

And Not to hide

To let go

And enjoy the ride

To find a love

To lay beside

I will

Try my damndest

To feel

Not to run

To always know

There is the sun

To seek out those

Who cherish fun

I will

Try forever

To feel

And not be scared

To embrace you all

No matter what we've shared

And to show you love

To see i've cared

I will

It's my decree

I will

You'll see
