

939-1000
I'd bet you

I'd bet you a dollar, a brand new dollar bill
I'd do it not for profit but simply for the thrill
I don't know the teams, i don't know the score
But i'd bet you a dollar and maybe even more
I'd bet you a hundred, i know that's quite a thing
And with some real bravado i'd toss in my diamond ring
It's all just a show, it's all just a ruse
These bets that i'm making show it's just what i choose
And i'd bet you a thousand and a thousand over again
I'd wager with all takers, with any men
The money would mean nothing, like redford in the sting
I'd bet all that money for i have no need for bling
But here is the bet you might not expect
Maybe if you looked into my eyes my heart you could detect
And i'd bet you my life that the love i feel is true
I'd bet you my life, for my god i so love you
