I'd pay big money

I'd pay big money for an optimistic heart
The kind that always felt connected and didn't tear apart
The kind that trusted deep and loved my fellows from the start
Ya, i'd pay big money for that

I'd pay big money for my 20 year old abs
The kind of 6 pack about which all the men and women gab
Hard as rock and rippled not unlike a granite slab
Ya, i'd pay big money for that

I'd pay big money to feel the giddyness of joy
The kind that i used to feel on the weekends as a boy
The kind that didn't need a virtual reality toy
Ya i'd pay big money for that

I'd pay big money to be able to go back in time
Getting older like this is assuredly a crime
In my youth my eyes sparkled with a mischievous shine
Ya i'd pay big money for that

But there isn't enough money in the world to buy what i want
I can only close my eyes and fantasize that i could go
Back into the past when i was young and full of hope
Back into the past before the truth i'd come to know

So ya, i'd pay big money
C'mon big money
