

775-1000
I'll find out tomorrow

You don't need to tell me today
I know this feeling will pass
You needn't heed what i say
Just know that i won't go away
And i can wait, i can wait
For i understand time
And it is always so
i'll find out tomorrow

You don't need to promise me a thing
Keep you secrets
Hold them tight
Drive away
I won't fight
For i understand time
Nothing truly goes away
And it is ever so
I'll find out tomorrow

Truth will out
Forever
Hiding in the shadows
Can never be
No matter how slow
The moments go
I know
I'll find out tomorrow
