

I'M LYING NOW

a friendly greeting (C7)
a caring smile (F)
i say i love you
i have no guile
i visit often
i drink your wine
you say how are you
i say i'm fine

but i'm lying now, it's up to you to see it in my eyes (Am, G, F) i'm lying now, i need you to hear my silent cries i'm lying now, well my whole world is caving in please don't let me go, oh call me on my sin

another meeting
a warm embrace
some more hot coffee
an angelic face
another hour
you say hello
but i can't stay here
i got places to go

the family portrait
hangs on the wall
look at the generations
such joy for all
there i am grinning
beaming such pride
but i'm dying
on the inside
