

994-1000
I'm not all that unique

This song may sound
Melancholy
But truth be known
It is not
Deep contentments what i've got
I dance through life and laugh a lot
But i'm not all that unique
I may do many different things
Gaze at clouds and strum and sing
But here me when i speak
I'm not all that unique
I'm just a man who wants to live
To love my love and warmly give
To fill my time in joys pursuit
To make a where love's the root
And while i may in different hue
Be in some ways different from you
Here me when i speak
Im simply not all that unique.
